

The form "Body Disposition Authorization Affidavit (TEXAS)"... permits competent persons to declare their wishes with respect to body disposition, including cremation, thus avoiding the need to secure the approval of their survivors for the chosen disposition.

Form must be notarized GET FORM

RELATED LINKS

* What information does my family need to fill out my death certificate?

* Prior to death, may I appoint an agent to make all decisions about my final body disposition?