

This document permits competent persons to declare their wishes with respect to body disposition, including cremation, thus avoiding the need to secure the approval of their survivors for the chosen disposition. Form must be notarized.

